ABOUT THE ILF 2024

This year in 2024, the Internal Audit LearnFest is back after a respite of five years. To bring you the cutting-edge thinking and latest trends in Internal Auditing, Ingenium has collaborated with PwC, as an exclusive knowledge partner of the event.

The ILF Conference 2024 seeks to unite the internal audit community to exchange knowledge, learn new strategies, and encourage participants to remain at the forefront of global developments.

The Conference focuses on the new horizons and opportunities available for the internal auditing practice in Pakistan. As internal auditors become more valued as trusted advisors and essential members within their organizations, they must expand their range of skills, covering everything from AI and human resources to fraud prevention, environmental sustainability, and cybersecurity.

Featuring keynote presentations, hands-on workshops, and illustrative case studies, the conference will allow attendees to discover the newest methods, tools, and creative strategies essential for effectively navigating the ever-changing landscape of risks.
